

PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS WILL BE RECEIVED FOR PLANT

Real Estate Committee of Council to Prepare for Bids.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Ordinance Committee of Council will Have Big Job on Their Hands.

The real estate committee was empowered by council last night to get plans and specifications for a fire proof garbage plant and to report to council at some future time. With the burning of the plant last Sunday night, the members of council learned the necessity of having it fire proof, even at an extra cost, and this is the action to be taken upon the recommendation of the garbage committee, of which Charles Schmieler is chairman, and J. K. Hein and Oscar Lynn, members.

A petition was presented from some of the residents of the community near the garbage furnace asking that it be moved from the vicinity. It is claimed that it is unhealthful and causes much discomfort. The matter was laid upon the table until a future meeting.

By unanimous vote of the council, the ordinance committee was instructed to revise the ordinances of the borough, and have them printed in book form. This work will in all probability take a year. It is planned to have these books put on sale when they are finished. The water committee was instructed to make arrangements for a meeting of council with the citizens' committee, and water company officials and the attorneys of these bodies at some future time.

Action was taken to uphold the police department in any legitimate and humane performance concerning the catching and killing of dogs. It appears that there had been some complaint about the method by which the animals are caught and put to death.

The Queen Contest.

The vote as taken at noon today gives the following results:

Miss Myrtle Dunmire.....	614
Miss Nellie Dick.....	341
Miss Mercy Myford.....	331
Miss Rosa Vetter.....	189
Miss Lenora Miksch.....	165
Miss Evelyn Hays.....	158
Miss Jennie MacNicol.....	25
Miss Agnes Allen.....	90

The contest closes tonight at 10 o'clock.

The largest real estate transaction both from point of consideration and amount of property involved in Monessen, has just been consummated. This is a deal whereby T. Lee Hammett, a Pittsburg man, purchased 27 houses and lots from Steel Workers Land company. About $35,000 is the monetary consideration involved, the deed for the property being made out for $1 and other valuable considerations. It is understood that some Pittsburg and Homestead properties were traded in on the deal.

The transaction was made through E. Jeffries of the real estate department of the Monessen Savings and Trust company, and S. E. Kingsley of Pittsburg. The property purchased by Mr. Hammett is located in McMahon borough adjoining Monessen and will be improved by him.

COUPLE CAUGHT IN ACT OF WORKING FLIM-FLAM GAME

Gold Bricked Charleroi People Out of Considerable Money and Then Went to California.

Howard Searight and his wife, Mabel Searight of Ohio, have been lodged in jail for 30 days each on charges of conspiracy to defraud. The hearing was before Justice of the Peace Hornbake of California. Information was made by J. Redling Schaefer and C. A. Wright of California. The couple secured considerable money from Charleroi and some from California.

The game of the couple was to make the rounds of the business places and residences, and presenting a woe-begone appearance, solicit funds, the purpose being, according to their statement, to get means to take them to Fredericksburg, Ohio. The woman, who did nearly all the canvassing, would tell a pitiful story of having become stranded and not having enough to get home, of starving and general hard luck. Mr. Schaefer was put "next" to the scheme Friday evening. He works in Charleroi and travels to and from California. His attention was called to the couple last evening but a short time before he went home. They bought a ticket, he learned, not for Fredericksburg, but for California. They took the same train as he, and immediately began their work upon their arrival, the man waiting around the California station while the woman started her canvass.

Mr. Schaefer went home, and after supper made another trip down street. He found the couple in the station quarrelling, and just as he arrived upon the scene saw the man strike the woman a blow in the face. Both were arrested and information was made later. The woman told her story readily, seemingly ashamed of the life she was leading, and expressing a desire to quit it. She intimated that her husband drove her to begging, and barely gave her enough to live on. She was given the choice of either dismissal and fare to Fredericksburg or a hearing, and chose the latter.

In the woman's coat were found some letters, and one was found in the man's possession. It was from his brother, in which "poor Mabel" was referred to in a way that would suggest that the wife was not being used rightly. The other letters were from persons who entreated that the couple's mode of living be changed for a different and honest occupation.

BALL PLAYER OF LUTHERAN TEAM HAS ANKLE BROKEN

Was Sliding into Home Plate when Spike Caught, Turning Ankle.

Jules Balza, the popular and speedy shortstop of the Lutheran team of the church league, is suffering from a "pott's" fracture of the ankle, that he received in the game last evening, with the First Presbyterians. He had made a beautiful two base hit, and had scored a man. Getting on third base through a hit, he attempted to score a run, but was caught at the home plate. Young Balza slid, and the spike of his left foot caught. His foot was turned, and the bone broke. The sound was heard in the grandstand many yards away. Dr. Smith attended Balza, and reduced the fracture at once. He remained to see the game out, and the Lutherans beat their opponents, pluckily enduring the pain, and then was removed to his home on Crest avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter of McKean avenue and daughter Emma went to Morgantown yesterday to visit relatives for a week or more.

OFFICE MEN AND OUTSIDE EMPLOYEES PICNICING TODAY

Pittsburg Men Make Trip Up River for Day of Supreme Enjoyment.

The employees of the Pittsburg Steel company from Pittsburg, including the officials, are enjoying the annual picnic at Monessen today. A special train carrying the party reached Monessen at 10 o'clock. The day is being spent in a social way, dancing at the machine building, which has been fitted up for the occasion, being a feature. Dinner was served to the many guests at 12 o'clock. This afternoon the annual baseball game is being played between a team from the visitors and the nine from the Monessen plant. The latter is captained by Superintendent Nash.

Miss Ream of New York city, after a visit in Charleroi with friends and relatives, left yesterday evening for her home.

TERRIBLE TALE OF WHAT CONDITION POWDERS WILL DO TO PEACEFUL MAN

Well Nigh Broke Up a Happy Home—Hubby was Off Feed and Wife Gave Him Them as a Laxative.

A story comes from Rostraver of a farmer, his wife and a package of condition powders, that has fiction, truth or any other kind of strange tales beaten forty blocks. The family lives near Monessen in Rostraver township. The story exemplifies the old teaching "that what is good for man is good for beast."

This couple thinks a lot of each other, and last month when the husband began to refuse his rations and appear as though he had the pip, it worried the wife. Nothing seemed to suit his taste, and he went about doing his chores as if trying to save funeral expenses. Out in the barn his wife came across a package of condition powders which they feed horses, and after reading of its good qualities printed on the wrapper, she resolved to try some on hubby.

The next morning for breakfast she mixed a table spoonful with his oatmeal. He ate with a relish. The next day she repeated the dose, and so on, until at the end of the week he jumped a five rail fence and turned a hand spring. Before he had eaten a one pound package he threw the hired man there times during the noon hour, and cavorted around in a manner that would put a 16 year old boy to shame. Then the good wife, tickled all over at her wonderful discovery, got another package and continued the treatment. Then her husband got so frisky that she couldn't keep him home at nights, and he wanted to prance around and make goo-goo eyes at other women, and spend most of his time in Belle Vernon, Monessen or Eldora Park. Now the good wife is living in a jealous rage, and anxiously hunting some powders that will have a deterrent effect upon hubby. She is contemplating divorce, if he does not change.

Monessen people are much interested in the outcome of affairs, and as the couple are well known hope to see husband and wife reunited in the bond of love in a short time.

INSPECTORS ARE ADVISED

Optional with Them Whether or Not Black Powder Shall be Used.

LETTER FROM RODERICK

In a letter sent out to all the mine inspectors of the bituminous districts, James E. Roderick, chief of the Department of Mines at Harrisburg, has served notice as to how far the inspectors are allowed to go in future inspections. The allegation made some time ago that much of the loss of life in coal mines was due to the failure of inspectors to enforce compliance with the provisions of the mine laws, is also given attention in the letter, and Chief Roderick declares that such a charge would not be made publicly "unless there was some truth in it." The black powder question is taken up. The letter in part follows:

"In gaseous and dusty mines do not allow the use of any explosives except 'permitted' explosives, as determined by the testing station at Pittsburg.

"If in your opinion the use of black powder in a non-gaseous mine is a menace to life, you are directed to notify the mine foreman, superintendent or manager of that fact, and if they insist on the continued use of back powder against your protest, you will report the matter to the Department of Mines, and two or more of the other inspectors will be sent to assist you in making further investigation. A report of the inspectors' investigation shall be sent to the mine foreman, superintendent or managers, and also to the Department of Mines."

Mr. Roderick emphasizes the necessity on the part of inspectors of insisting upon ample ventilation of the room and entries.

Public Expediency.

Monongahela's lighting question is almost parallel with the water question in Charleroi. In the former town the council has signed a contract for street lighting with an electric company in opposition to a large percentage of the citizens, who want to continue gas lights in some portions of the town. In consideration of the protests on the part of the property owners the mayor of Monongahela refuses to sign the ordinances necessary for the installation of the electric lights.

The action of the Monongahela council on the light question, as well as that of the Charleroi council on the water question, is influenced more or less by public expediency. Where public service is deficient people clamor for immediate relief.
An individuals most councilmen would fight the rapacity of public service corporations to a finish, but as a representative of the people who, for the most part, look only at immediate results, popular sentiment compels a compromise. Unfortunately the people have permitted private corporations to so usurp public utilities and trench themselves behind favorable legislation that municipal councils are powerless to exact justice and equity from them. While there is always a considerable percentage of citizens favorable to fighting out these questions, a majority of the people would not stand for the discomforts and inconveniences, as well as the delay and cost which such action would entail. Because of this indifference and lack of support, as well as a better knowledge of conditions, public expediency impels most councils to make compromises which to some people appear inadvisable.

Movement Contagious.

Charleroi's progressiveness in civic matters has caused quite a stir in this section of the State. The establishment of public playgrounds is everywhere commented upon favorably, and several towns have already taken steps to follow Charleroi's example.
The inspiration furnished by Charleroi is contagious.

Charleroi's movement toward securing a public park is also attracting attention, and it is possible that several other towns in this section will take steps in the same direction.
Already the Monongahela Times is impressed with the project, and is ably urging the citizens there to consider it. The civic spirit, which is being manifested throughout the community, is one of the results of the great evangelistic movement throughout the country which has given such an impetus to church and religious influences during the past year. When the precept "Love thy neighbor as thyself" becomes a living rule of action civic problems are readily solved.

Our Schools.

The auditors' statement of the borough schools published elsewhere in this issue affords some interesting reading and information for taxpayers.
The report is presented in the same comprehensive form as that of the borough, by which every detail is made plain to the public. It should be carefully read, as it contains information of value to all interested in the school work and borough affairs.

From the report it is shown that the borough maintains 39 school rooms, which require the services of 41 instructors for a term of nine months. The whole number of scholars in attendance was 1,915 and the average percent of attendance was 95.
To maintain these schools last year, including building and furnishing, required an expenditure of something over $55,000. A part of these expenditures, however, are extraordinary, and will not have to be met each year, so that the ordinary cost of maintaining the schools, including building and furnishing, will probably run between $45,000 and $48,000.

This report also shows Charleroi's standing as a town, which is second in Washington county.

Electric Sparks

It's wonderful how some fellows keep out of jail who should, by all the points of the compass, be sentenced to solitary confinement.

The Rostraver couple that are having a fall out because of some condition powders doubtless considers that there is but one way to keep out of trouble—that is keep sober.

A small valve in a piece of machinery may cause an awful lot of trouble some times, but it is nothing compared to what a woman can do when her tongue gets started.

Some fellows nearly work their heads off for an inheritance, only to learn after all their labor that the money has gone to the establishment of some kind of needless sanitarium.

Just think of it. Monongahela wants a playground. Evidently Charleroi's example has proven a good one, such as the old burg down the creek is desirous of following.

When Baseball Was an Infant Industry.
It was a crude game, but merry in theory the pitcher was there only to give the boys a chance to "soak the ball." "First bound" was still out. The unfortunate catcher, handling a heavy lively ball without mask, glove or protector, stood up near the bat when men were on bases if he had the skill and courage. The early guides recommended him to do so when he could.
Had not the pitcher been restricted to an artificial throw scarce a catcher would have lived to tell the tale.
Many catchers took everything "on first bounce" and managed at that to prevent much base stealing. Base running also was in its infancy. "Smith, says the Spirit of the Times, caught a remarkable game, having but five passed balls scored against him." Here and there we get a glimpse which shows how crude it all was, what a matter of hit and miss natural force in the fifties Dicky Pearce shone with out a peer as an infielder. He used to stop grounders with his hand and foot.

She Did So.

"Always," said papa as he drank his coffee and enjoyed his morning beefsteak—"always, children, change the subject when anything unpleasant has been said. It is both wise and polite."

That evening on his return from business he found several of his flower beds despoiled and the tiny imprint of slippered feet silently bearing witness to the small thief.

"Mabel," he said to her, "did you pick my flowers?"
"Papa," said Mabel, "did you see a moukey in the city today? We had a—"
"Never mind that. Did you pick my flowers, Mabel?"

"Papa, what did grandma send me?"
"Mabel, what do you mean? Did you pick my flowers? Answer me, yes or no."

"Yes, papa, I did, but I thought I would change the subject."—London

Look After Your Property.

It is a safe rule in this world to look carefully after the details of your own property. Be sure your title deeds are recorded, that your insurance is kept up, that you alone have the key to your strong box in the safety vault.
Do not leave your securities with your broker. If he is doing a conservative business he has no need of them. If he isn't you don't want him to handle your property. The wonder is that with all the confidence reposed in financial matters there are so few defalcations. There is no use in making it easy for some one to get your property. In this world it is hard for most persons to acquire anything, and they should be careful to the last degree in seeing that they are fully protected in it.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Charleroi Reader
Knows too Well.

When the kidneys are sick,
Nature tells you all about it.
The urine is nature's calendar.
Infrequent or too frequent action;
Any urinary trouble tells of kidney

ills.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.
People in this vicinity testify to
this.
Isaac B. Weaver, retired, 323 E.
Pike St., Canonsburg, Pa., says: I cannot praise Doan's Kidney Pills too highly as I know from experience that they are exactly as represented. Just recently I suffered a severe attack
of backache. There was a constant,

dull pain across the kidneys and in my sides. The passages of the kidney secretions were too frequent, causing
me to arise many times during the night. I suffered from headaches and was subject to spells of dizziness. I at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills and a short use of this remedy
gave me relief. I have never heard of a case where Doan's Kidney Pills
have failed to bring relief from backache and other annoying symptoms of kidney trouble. I heartily recommend this remedy to kidney sufferers.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo,

States.

by the finders after the balloons descend. The excursion will be held over the P. and L. E. road, a special train leaving early Tuesday morning
for Cascade Park, near New Castle.
The fare for the round trip from Belle Vernon and nearby stations is $1.05 for adults and 50 cents for
children. 2862

Will Try Again.

On account of a failure in one
"Clean Up Day" Monessen will have another affair of the kind, when it expects to get rid of all the surplus rubbish and garbage that is to be found over the town. The clean up day was last Friday and but a few citizens carried out the intent of the movement.

PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS WILL BE RECEIVED FOR PLANT

Real Estate Committee of Council to Prepare for Bids.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Ordinance Committee of Council will Have Big Job on Their Hands.

The real estate committee was empowered by council last night to get plans and specifications for a fire proof garbage plant and to report to council at some future time. With the burning of the plant last Sunday night, the members of council learned the necessity of having it fire proof, even at an extra cost, and this is the action to be taken upon the recommendation of the garbage committee, of which Charles Schmieler is chairman, and J. K. Hein and Oscar Lynn, members.

A petition was presented from some of the residents of the community near the garbage furnace asking that it be moved from the vicinity. It is claimed that it is unhealthy and causes much discomfort. The matter was laid upon the table until a future meeting.

By unanimous vote of the council, the ordinance committee was instructed to revise the ordinances of the borough, and have them printed in book form. This work will in all probability take a year. It is planned to have these books put on sale when they are finished. The water committee was instructed to make arrangements for a meeting of council with the citizens' committee, and Water company officials and the attorneys of these bodies at some future time.

Action was taken to uphold the police department in any legitimate and humane performance concerning the catching and killing of dogs. It appears that there had been some complaint about the method by which the animals are caught and put to death.

The Queen Contest.

The vote as taken at noon today gives the following results:

Miss Myrtle Dunmire.....	614
Miss Nellie Dick.....	441
Miss Mercy Myford.....	331
Miss Rosa Vetter.....	189
Miss Lenora Miksch.....	165
Miss Evelyn Hays.....	153
Miss Jennie MacNicol.....	25
Miss Agnes Allen.....	90

The contest closes tonight at 10 o'clock.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERRED

Big Deal at Monessen, in Which Much Money
is Involved.

CITY MAN THE PURCHASER

The largest real estate transaction both from point of consideration and amount of property involved in Monessen, has just been consummated. This is a deal whereby T. Lee Hammett, a Pittsburg man, purchased 27 houses and lots from Steel Workers Land company. About $35,000 is the monetary consideration involved, the deed for the property being made out for $1 and other valuable considerations. It is understood that some Pittsburg and Homestead properties were traded in on the deal.

The transaction was made through E. Jeffries of the real estate department of the Monessen Savings and Trust company, and S. E. Kingsley of Pittsburg. The property purchased by Mr. Hammett is located in McMahon borough adjoining Monessen and will be improved by him.

Riva.

Dora, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riva died at 10:20 this morning, aged 2 months and 15 days. The funeral will be from their residence at the corner of Crest avenue and Seventh street tomorrow at 2 p. m. Interment at Calvary cemetery.

COUPLE CAUGHT IN ACT OF WORKING FLIM-FLAM GAME

Gold Bricked Charleroi People Out of Considerable Money and Then Went to California.

Howard Searight and his wife, Mabel Searight of Ohio, have been indicted in Pittsburg for charges of conspiracy to defraud. The hearing was before Justice of the Peace Hornbake of California. Information was made by J. Redding Schaefer and C. A. Wright of California. The couple secured considerable money from Charleroi and some from California.

The game of the couple was to make the rounds of the business places and residences, and presenting a woe-begone appearance, solicit funds, the purpose being, according to their statement, to get means to take them to Fredericksburg, Ohio. The woman, who did nearly all the canvassing, would tell a pitiful story of having become stranded and not having enough to get home, of starving and general hard luck. Mr. Schaefer was put "next" to the scheme Friday evening. He works in Charleroi and travels to and from California. His attention was called to the couple last evening but a short time before he went home. They bought a ticket, he learned, not for Fredericksburg, but for California. They took the same train as he, and immediately began their work upon their arrival, the man waiting around the California station while the woman started her canvass.

Mr. Schaefer went home, and after supper made another trip down street. He found the couple in the station quarrelling, and just as he arrived upon the scene saw the man strike the woman a blow in the face. Both were arrested and information was made later. The woman told her story readily, seemingly ashamed of the life she was leading, and expressing a desire to quit it. She intimated that her husband drove her to begging, and barely gave her enough to live on. She was given the choice of either dismissal and fare to Fredericksburg or a hearing, and chose the latter.

In the woman's coat were found some letters, and one was found in the man's possession. It was from his brother, in which "poor Mabel" was referred to in a way that would suggest that the wife was not being used rightly. The other letters were from persons who intimated that the couple's mode of living be changed for a different and honest occupation.

BALL PLAYER OF LUTHERAN TEAM HAS ANKLE BROKEN

Was Sliding into Home Plate
when Spike Caught,
Turning Ankle.

Jules Balza, the popular and speedy shortstop of the Lutheran team of the church league, is suffering from a "potts" fracture of the ankle, that he received in the game last evening, with the First Presbyterians. He had made a beautiful two base hit, and had scored a man. Getting on third base through a hit, he attempted to score a run, but was caught at the home plate. Young Balza slid, and the spike of his left foot caught. His foot was turned, and the bone broke. The sound was heard in the grandstand many yards away. Dr. Smith attended Balza, and reduced the fracture at once. He remained to see the game out, and the Lutherans beat their opponents, pluckily enduring the pain, and then was removed to his home on Crest avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter of McKean avenue and daughter Emma went to Morgantown yesterday to visit relatives for a week or more.

TERRIBLE TALE OF WHAT CONDITION POWDERS WILL DO TO PEACEFUL MAN

Well Nigh Broke Up a Happy Home—Hubby was Off Feed and Wife Gave Him Them as a Laxative.

A story comes from Rostraver of a farmer, his wife and a package of condition powders, that has fiction, truth or any other kind of strange tales beaten forty blocks. The family lives near Monessen in Rostraver township. The story exemplifies the old teaching "that what is good for man is good for beast."

This couple thinks a lot of each other, and last month when the husband began to refuse his rations and appear as though he had the pips, it worried the wife. Nothing seemed to suit his taste, and he went about doing his chores as if trying to save funeral expenses. Out in the barn his wife came across a package of condition powders which they feed horses, and after reading of its good qualities printed on the wrapper, she resolved to try some on hubby.

The next morning for breakfast she mixed a table spoonful with his oatmeal. He ate with a relish. The next day she repeated the dose, and so on, until at the end of the week he jumped a five rail fence and turned a hand spring. Before he had eaten a one pound package he threw the hired man three times during the noon hour, and cavorted around in a manner that would put a 16 year old boy to shame. Then the good wife, tickled all over at her wonderful discovery, got another package and continued the treatment. Then her husband got so frisky that she couldn't keep him home at nights, and he wanted to prance around and make goo-goo eyes at other women, and spend most of his time in Belle Vernon, Monessen or Edinboro, Pa. Now the good wife is living in a jealous rage, and anxiously hunting some powders that will have a deterrent effect upon her hubby. She is contemplating divorce, if he does not change.

Monessen people are much interested in the outcome of affairs, and as the couple are well known hope to see husband and wife reunited in the bond of love in a short time.

In a letter sent out to all the mine inspectors of the bituminous districts, James E. Roderick, chief of the Department of Mines at Harrisburg, has served notice as to how far the inspectors are allowed to go in future inspections. The allegation made some time ago that much of the loss of life in coal mines was due to the failure of inspectors to enforce compliance with the provisions of the mine laws, is also given attention in the letter, and Chief Roderick declares that such a charge would not be made publicly "unless there was some truth in it." The black powder question is taken up. The letter in part follows:

"In gaseous and dusty mines do not allow the use of any explosives except 'permitted' explosives, as determined by the testing station at Pittsburg.

"If in your opinion the use of black powder in a non-gaseous mine is a menace to life, you are directed to notify the mine foreman, superintendent or manager of that fact, and if they insist on the continued use of black powder against your protest, you will report the matter to the Department of Mines, and two or more of the other inspectors will be sent to assist you in making further investigation. A report of the inspectors' investigation shall be sent to the mine foreman, superintendent or managers, and also to the Department of Mines."

Mr. Roderick emphasizes the necessity on the part of inspectors of insisting upon ample ventilation of the room and entries.

Public Expediency.

Monongahela's lighting question is almost parallel with the water question in Charleroi. In the former town the council has signed a contract for street lighting with an electric company in opposition to a large percentage of the citizens, who want to continue gas lights in some portions of the town. In consideration of the protests on the part of the property owners the mayor of Monongahela refuses to sign the ordinance necessary for the installation of the electric lights.

The action of the Monongahela council on the light question, as well as that of the Charleroi council on the water question, is influenced more or less by public expediency. Where public service is deficient people clamor for immediate relief. As individuals most councilmen would fight the rapacity of public service corporations to a finish, but as a representative of the people who, for the most part, look only at immediate results, popular sentiment compels a compromise. Unfortunately the people have permitted private corporations to so usurp public utilities and entrench themselves behind favorable legislation that municipal councils are powerless to exact justice and equity from them. While there is always a considerable percentage of citizens favorable to fighting out these questions, a majority of the people would not stand for the discomforts and inconveniences, as well as the delay and cost which such action would entail. Because of this indifference and lack of support, as well as a better knowledge of conditions, public expediency impels most councils to make compromises which to some people appear inadvisable.

Movement Contagious.

Charleroi's progressiveness in civic matters has caused quite a stir in this section of the State. The establishment of public playgrounds is everywhere commented upon favorably, and several towns have already taken steps to follow Charleroi's example. The inspiration furnished by Charleroi is contagious.

Charleroi's movement toward securing a public park is also attracting attention, and it is possible that several other towns in this section will take steps in the same direction. Already the Monongahela Times is impressed with the project, and is ably urging the citizens there to consider it. The civic spirit, which is being manifested throughout the community, is one of the results of the great anti-political movement throughout the country which has given such an impetus to church and religious influences during the past year. When the precept "Love thy neighbor as thyself" becomes a living rule of action civic problems are readily solved.

Our Schools.

The auditors' statement of the borough schools published elsewhere in this issue affords some interesting reading and information for taxpayers.

The report is presented in the same comprehensive form as that of the borough, by which every detail is made plain to the public. It should be carefully read, as it contains information of value to all interested in the school work and borough affairs.

From the report it is shown that the borough maintains 39 school rooms, which require the services of 41 instructors for a term of nine months. The whole number of scholars in attendance was 1,915 and the average percent of attendance was 96. To maintain these schools last year, including building and furnishing, required an expenditure of something over $55,000. A part of these expenditures, however, are extraordinary, and will not have to be met each year, so that the ordinary cost of maintaining the schools, including building and furnishing, will probably run between $45,000 and $48,000.

This report also shows Charleroi's standing as a town, which is second in Washington county.

Electric Sparks

It's wonderful how some fellows keep out of jail who should, by all the points of the compass, be sentenced to solitary confinement.

The Rostraver couple that are having a fall out because of some condition powders doubtless considers that there is but one way to keep out of trouble—that is keep sober.

A small valve in a piece of machinery may cause an awful lot of trouble some times, but it is nothing compared to what a woman can do when her tongue gets started.

Some fellows nearly work their heads off for an inheritance, only to learn after all their labor that the money has gone to the establishment of some kind of needless sanitarium.

Just think of it, Monongahela wants a playground. Evidently Charleroi's example has proven a good one, such as the old burg down the creek is desirous of following.

When Baseball Was an Infant Industry. It was a crude game, but merry. In theory the pitcher was there only to give the boys a chance to "soak the ball." "First bound" was still out. The unfortunate catcher, handling a heavy, lively ball without mask, glove or protection, stood up near the bat when men were on bases if he had the skill and courage. The early guides recommended him to do so when he could. Had not the pitcher been restricted to an artificial throw scarce a catcher would have lived to tell the tale. Many catchers took everything "no first bound" and managed at that to prevent much base stealing. Base running also was in its infancy. "Smith," says the Spirit of the Times, "caught a remarkable game, having but five passed balls scored against him." Here and there we get a glimpse which shows how crude it all was, what a matter of hit and miss natural force. In the fifties Dicky Pearce shone with out a peer as an infielder. He used to stop grounders with his hand and feet. —Will Irwin in Collier's.

She Did So.

"Always," said papa as he drank his coffee and enjoyed his morning breakfast—"always, children, change the subject when anything unpleasant has been said. It is both wise and polite."

That evening on his return from business he found several of his flower beds despoiled and the tiny imprint of slippered feet silently bearing witness to the small thief.

"Mabel," he said to her, "did you pick my flowers?"
"Papa," said Mabel, "did you see a monkey in the city today? We had a—"
"Never mind that. Did you pick my flowers, Mabel?"
"Papa, what did grandma send me?"
"Mabel, what do you mean? Did you pick my flowers? Answer me, yes or no."

"Yes, papa, I did, but I thought I would change the subject."—London Tit-Bits.

Look After Your Property.

It is a safe rule in this world to look carefully after the details of your own property. Be sure your title deeds are recorded, that your insurance is kept up, that you alone have the key to your strong box in the safety vault. Do not leave your securities with your broker. If he is doing a conservative business he has no need of them. If he isn't you don't want him to handle your property. The wonder is that men in this world take so little interest in financial matters there are so few defalcations. There is no use in making it easy for some one to get your property. In this world it is hard for most persons to acquire anything, and they should be careful to the last degree in seeing that they are fully protected in it.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

We, the undersigned Auditors, have examined the books and reports of the Secretary, Treasurer and other Officers of the Charleroi School District and from them have prepared the above statement, which we respectfully submit.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Charleroi Reader
Knows too Well.

When the kidneys are sick,
Nature tells you all about it.
The urine is nature's calendar.
Infrequent or too frequent action.
Any urinary trouble tells of kidney

ills.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

People in this vicinity testify to
this.

Pike St., Canonsburg, Pa., says: I
cannot praise Doan's Kidney Pills too
highly as I know from experience that
they are exactly as represented. Just
recently I suffered a severe attack
of backache. There was a constant

dull pain across the kidneys and in my
sides. The passages of the kidney secretions were too frequent, causing
me to arise many times during the night. I suffered from headaches and
was subject to spells of dizziness. I
at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills and a short use of this remedy
gave me relief. I have never heard
of a case where Doan's Kidney Pills
have failed to bring relief from backache and other annoying symptoms of

kidney trouble. I heartily recommend
this remedy to kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50
cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo,
New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name--Doan's--and take no other.

Balloon Has Free Tickets.

In order to advertise the grand outing of the Knights of Malta to Cascade Park next Tuesday the local lodge has adopted a novel scheme.
Tomorrow night at 8:30 several balloons will be sent up from the corner of Fifth street, to which free tickets will be attached. These can be used by the finders after the balloons descend. The excursion will be held over the P. and L. E. road, a special train leaving early Tuesday morning
for Cascade Park, near New Castle.
The fare for the round trip from
Belle Vernon and nearby stations is $1.05 for adults and 50 cents for
children.

Will Try Again.

On account of a failure in one
"Clean Up Day" Monessen will have
another affair of the kind, when it
expects to get rid of all the surplus
rubbish and garbage that is to be found over the town. The clean up
day was last Friday and but a few
citizens carried out the intent of the movement.
